ARTIST BIO

From the dynamic clubs of Thailand and Australia to the exhilarating venues of Europe, Naizon, the Amsterdam-based artist, has graced stages across the globe. With a portfolio boasting over 300 appearances, he seamlessly merges technical expertise with an intuitive grasp of the crowd's energy, crafting sonic journeys that transport listeners to dancefloor euphoria. This prowess extends beyond the stage to the studio, where Naizon has cultivated an impressive catalog of epic tunes, accumulating over 2 million streams.

His passion for dance music echoes not only in his performances but also in every release. Each single is infused with his unmistakable passion and signature style, leaving an indelible mark on the global dance scene. Among his notable singles is the incredible 'What The Funk,' a collaboration with Gustavo Mota that has garnered more than 1 million streams since its 2021 release.

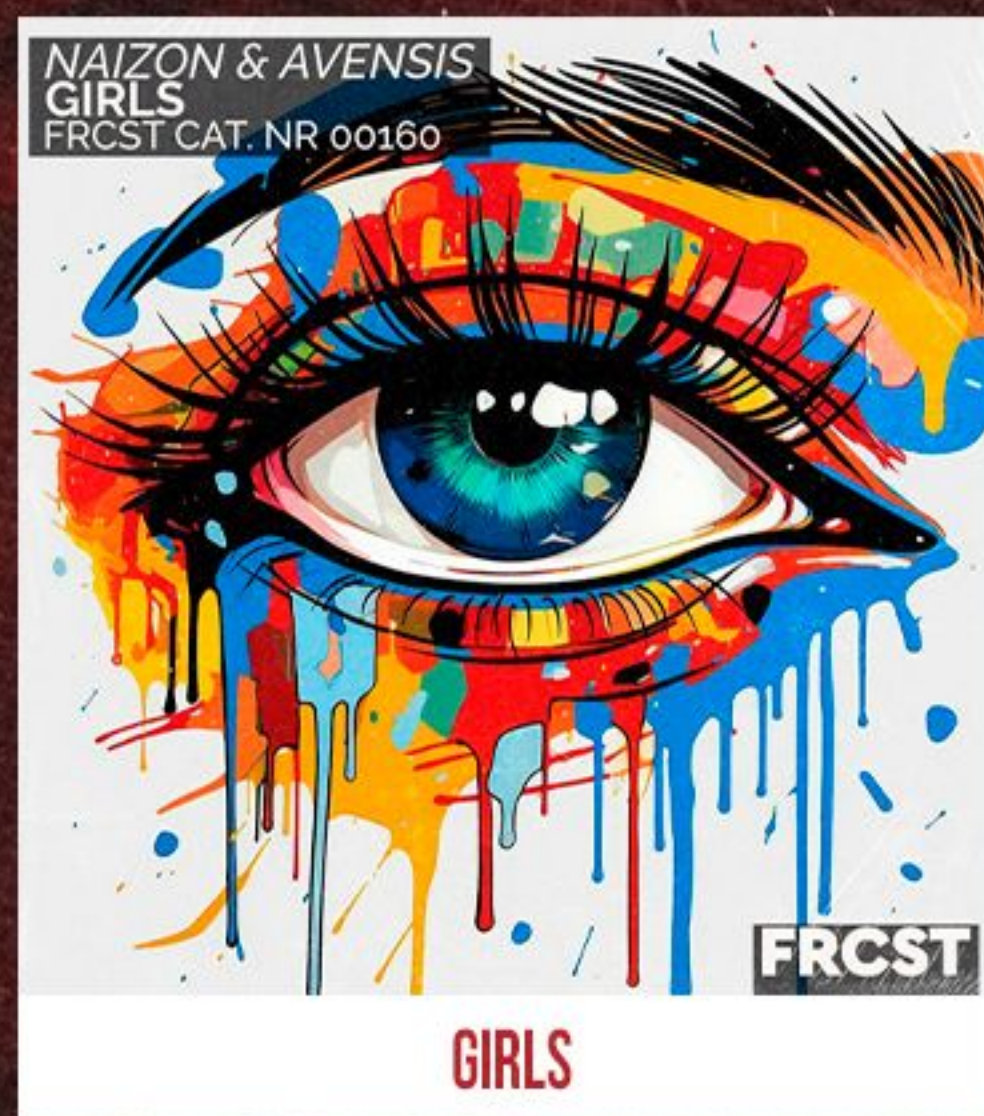

Eager to share his sound with the world, Naizon launched 'Naiz:On Air' in 2020, a weekly radio residency broadcasted to over 20+ radio stations worldwide. While primarily a showcase of the Naizon sound for those unable to attend his live shows, the program has evolved into a platform for both established house classics and up-and-coming gems, solidifying Naizon's connection with listeners on a deeper level.

In the studio, Naizon has consistently delivered outstanding work, earning him a place on respected dance music record labels such as MIXFEED, Force Of Habit, Soave Records, and FRSC.T. Support from industry heavyweights, including Nicola Fasano, DJs From Mars, Carta, Vessbroz, Leandro da Silva and more, underscores the impact Naizon has made on the dance music scene.

As we enter 2024, Naizon's trajectory continues to ascend. With recent studio sponsorships, the ongoing success of his radio show, and a plethora of new music on the horizon, the future shines bright for this talented artist. Keep a close eye on Naizon and witness his genuine ascent in the realm of house music.
